Docket No: 2018-319-E

Dear Ms. Boyd:

On November 20, 2019, our office filed a Notice of Cross-Appeal with the South Carolina Supreme Court in the above referenced matter. We thereafter filed the stamped copy of the documents from the Supreme Court with your office.

When our office filed the Cover Letter, Notice of Cross-Appeal, and Proof of Service with the Clerk's Office at the Supreme Court, the Clerk's Office inadvertently stamped these documents as filed November 19, 2019, instead of November 20, 2019. The Supreme Court has corrected the filing date, and we are hereby resubmitting copies with the corrected date. We are not resubmitting copies of the Public Service Commission orders being appealed because these have not changed.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Chris Huber". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Chris" and last name "Huber" clearly distinguishable.

Christopher M. Huber
